

Scholarship Newsletter

January 2012

The Xavier Guidance Department publishes a list of scholarships that are offered to seniors through various colleges or organizations. Scholarships offered from particular colleges mean you have to plan on applying and enrolling at that college in order to receive the scholarship. Information for some of these scholarships will be posted on the Guidance Center bulletin board. For other scholarships you will have to mail for an application, apply online or request an application from Ms. Grinstead in the Guidance Center. If you want information concerning a particular scholarship listed in the newsletter, come to the Guidance Center and fill out the Counselor Appointment form. Check Ms. Grinstead's name and list the number of the scholarship from the newsletter. You will receive the requested information in your homeroom. Thank you and good luck.
